The board and staff of Matrix Lifeline Pregnancy Center thank you for celebrating moms and babies with us by participating in our 2010 Showers of Flowers project. We are happy to report that the members of Brady Lane shared $480 to help provide baby items for families that struggle to provide the basic needs to care for their little ones. Thank you for Caring and Sharing.

We want to thank everyone at church for your prayers and concerns for our great-nephew, Caden Miller. He is doing great since his heart transplant. He was out of intensive care 4 days after surgery and is now out of the hospital. We have a wonderful church family and we thank you very much!

Dear Brady Lane Family,
Thank you for the gift card. I'm sure it will be useful when I am buying things for school.

Good Shepherd Learning Center and Brady Friends,
I retired from Good Shepherd after 20 blessed years. Bill and Good Shepherd wanted to honor me. I "messed" up and told them I didn't want any recognition. Well, I have this terrible feeling in my heart and I need to make things right and apologize to you.
20 years ago, Ginger Walkup asked me if I would be head teacher of Good Shepherd. I told her I would try. Ginger, I'm so glad you asked me. Thank you to all the chairpersons, assistant teachers, sub teachers, Good Shepherd board, volunteers, elders, pianists, janitors, associate ministers, those who helped set up tables/chairs for our programs, Jan and now Lesley McKowen, and Bill. Bill helped me so much. He supported me, corrected me, and praised me. Everyone who is reading this I thank you because in some way you made Good Shepherd a success and helped me.
What a reward when a student says, "I'm here," "Did you miss me?" When we pray a student will say: "Did He hear me?" "Why is your hair white and black?" "Why do you wear the same dress?" "Will you hold me?" "I love you." "I like my school." Those are memories forever.
Eric spoke Sunday on being a "part" of something. He spoke of those playing sports and earning 8 million dollars!! I was a part of Good Shepherd for 20 years and those little "kids" are priceless! Thank you for an exciting, blessed 20 years which I have enjoyed so very much. I just wonder what Bill will do without me!!!
Christian love,
Kay Mayberry
